The Leadership

This diverse leadership team doesn't just broadcast TO the world—they ARE the world. Together, Zaina Juliette (Creole-African American), Edgar (Chinese and Filipino), and Dale Snow (Irish and British) represent the multicultural future of media. Their mission is clear: to bring the world together through authentic storytelling, cultural celebration, and representation that reflects the beautiful complexity of our global community.

Building FLM TV

Zaina Juliette has single-handedly developed FLM TV, showcasing her expertise in every aspect of network creation and management.

With over 380 industry honors and awards, Zaina Juliette comes to this venture with unmatched credentials. As a television host, she captivated audiences on Zaina Juliette & Friends on The CW Network. As an actress, she has delivered powerful performances in acclaimed productions including Condition of Return, Shades of Sapphire, I Thought You Knew, and Road Warriors.

"The hardest working entertainer in show business who never sold her soul."

What sets Juliette apart is not just her entertainment credentials, but what she accomplished behind the scenes. Working grueling eighteen-hour days for months, she taught herself broadcast engineering, learned web development from scratch, built custom streaming infrastructure, and programmed the entire network operation. She designed and built the complete broadcasting infrastructure, coded and developed proprietary streaming applications, produced and edited all original programming, and created every network commercial.
